Hey Fr. I hope you're doing well. I'm eleven days away from my graduation and my major seminary app is on the desk of someone important. Scary due to change. I'll be in Charleston May 13 till 15th. I hope you and I could catch up one of those days, dinner, lunch, or if you are free out at folly (thinking you might be at BE)
Let me know. Pray for me as I pray for you.
I should be here. Dinner is more a free time since school will still be ongoing Awesome! I look forward to it

Hey Fr. could you still meet up for dinner this week? If not, I understand.

Sure! What's a good night for you?
I'm free any night Fr. Expect Wed.
Pity, that's my best night. How's Thursday for you? Or

Pity, that's my best night. How's Thursday for you? Or Saturday? I have an ordination Friday night
Thursday is good.
Whoops! I have Confirmation at Nativity. Would Saturday work?
My bishop will be in town this weekend. So I'm not sure if he has dinner planned that night. Wed might be free now, we'll see tonight if we have Wednesday school this week. If we don't have school we can have dinner wed!
That would be i-d*mn-deal. All I have is a Confession for one of the kids being Confirmed at around 5pm here at church then I'm free. If Wednesday does NOT work, then perhaps lunch on Thursday?
Good plan. What time would you want to meet wed?
I should be free to leave here by 5:30-5:45. Do you want to meet out here and grab a bite, or go elsewhere?
I'm fine with out there if you are Good with me. We could meet at church and then walk somewhere, or I can get a pizza from Woody's and we could eat at the house. Let me know if it will work for your schedule either Wednesday, or Thursday, or even Saturday if Bishop Lopes does

Yes Fr.

Fr. Wed night will not work. My parish will be having Wednesday school and it's best I should show up.
Which day would you like to plan for next?
May 14, 2019, 1:13 PM
Would Saturday night work?
I am free sat night now
May 14, 2019, 3:44 PM
Fr. When do you offer confession?
Traffic on Saturdays is prohibitive coming to Folly, so if you want to me to meet you somewhere else for dinner I can. Otherwise - if you want to come out to Folly - I could hear your confession after my Mass. I normally have Confessions on Saturday from 4-445 and Sunday morning from 8-845

We can out there on folly. I'll come by about 630-7
Sounds delish.
I'll see you then

You free this afternoon?
Yes. Mass go okay?
Traffic is prohibitive, however. Perhaps another day we could meet?
I'm leaving tomorrow Fr.
Mass went great.
Glad! Hope you're well!!!
I am. I'll see you soon
